

Christmas Quotes

"May you never be too grown up to search the skies on Christmas Eve."

Annon

"I stopped believing in Santa Claus when I was six. Mother took me to see him in a department store and he asked for my autograph."

Shirley Temple

"I will honour Christmas in my heart, and try to keep it all the year."

Charles Dickens, A Christmas Carol

"Christmas is not a time nor a season, but a state of mind. To cherish peace and goodwill, to be plenteous in mercy, is to have the real spirit of Christmas."

Calvin Coolidge

"Unless we make Christmas an occasion to share our blessings, all the snow in Alaska won't make it 'white'."

Bing Crosby

"God bless us, every one!"

A Christmas Carol

"Our hearts grow tender with childhood memories and love of kindred, and we are better throughout the year for having, in spirit, become a child again at Christmastime."

Laura Ingalls Wilder

“Peace on earth will come to stay, When we live Christmas every day.”

Helen Steiner Rice

“Christmas is a day of meaning and traditions, a special day spent in the warm circle of family and friends.”

Margaret Thatcher

"Christmas is a time when everybody wants his past forgotten and his present remembered."

Phyllis Diller

“Just remember, the true spirit of Christmas lies in your heart.”

The Polar Express

"At Christmas, all roads lead home."

Marjorie Holmes

"Christmas is the season for kindling the fire of hospitality."

Washington Irving

"Mankind is a great, an immense family... This is proved by what we feel in our hearts at Christmas."

Pope John XXIII

"Maybe Christmas, he thought, doesn't come from a store. Maybe Christmas...perhaps...means a little bit more!"

Theodor Seuss Geisel, How the Grinch Stole Christmas

"Love the giver more than the gift."

Brigham Young

"Christmas will always be as long as we stand heart to heart and hand in hand."

Dr. Suess

"Christmas waves a magic wand over this world, and behold, everything is softer and more beautiful."

Norman Vincent Peale
