Good Friday

Intergenerational Idea

Good Friday. This is the day Jesus died.

Could you?

This is Good Friday because although we remember a sad and terrible event, Christians believe Jesus was doing what he planned and changing things by his dying.

You can read the whole story of the day in the gospel of John, chapters 18 and 19.

If you want to use an online Bible, here's one:

A Question...

What makes a day good or a day bad? Can a bad thing ever cause a good thing?

And Finally

This shorty film uses words from a famous sermon and animation to show the story.
