

Our Church at Home Spring Quotes

“You can cut all the flowers but you cannot keep Spring from coming.”

Pablo Neruda

“Spring is the time of plans and projects.”

Leo Tolstoy

“What a strange thing! To be alive beneath cherry blossoms.”

Kobayashi Issa

“Is the spring coming?” he said. “What is it like?”

“It is the sun shining on the rain and the rain falling on the sunshine...”

Frances Hodgson Burnett

“She turned to the sunlight
And shook her yellow head,
And whispered to her neighbour:

“Winter is dead.”

A.A. Milne

“It is spring again. The earth is like a child that knows poems by heart.”

Rainer Maria Rilke

“Because the birdsong might be pretty,
But it's not for you they sing,
And if you think my winter is too cold,
You don't deserve my spring.”

Erin Hanson

Our Church at Home Spring Quotes

“It's spring fever. That is what the name of it is.
And when you've got it, you want—oh, you don't quite know what it is you do want, but it just fairly makes your heart ache, you want it so!”

Mark Twain

“The sun just touched the morning;
The morning, happy thing,
Supposed that he had come to dwell,
And life would be all spring.”

Emily Dickinson

“Despite the forecast, live like it's spring.”

Lilly Pulitzer

“April hath put a spirit of youth in everything.”

William Shakespeare

“Can words describe the fragrance of the very breath of spring?”

Neltje Blanchan

“Spring work is going on with joyful enthusiasm.”

John Muir

“I glanced out the window at the signs of spring. The sky was almost blue, the trees were almost budding, the sun was almost bright.”

Millard Kaufman

“Want to forget that you're growing older? Walk across green grass with bare feet.”

Toni Sorenson

Spring Quotes

“And the Spring arose on the garden fair,
Like the Spirit of Love felt everywhere;
And each flower and herb on Earth's dark breast
Rose from the dreams of its wintry rest.”

Percy Bysshe Shelley

“Spring drew on...and a greenness grew over those brown beds, which, freshening daily, suggested the thought that Hope traversed them at night, and left each morning brighter traces of her steps.”

Charlotte Brontë

“I love the smell of rain and growing things.”

Serina Hernandez

“I can still bring into my body the joy I felt at seeing the first trillium of spring, which seemed to be telling me, “Never give up hope, spring will come.”

Jessica Stern

“There's nothing more beautiful than watching trees getting dressed up for Spring and Summer”

Charmaine J Forde

“The point is that the pleasures of spring are available to everybody, and cost nothing.”

George Orwell

“It's exciting to see things coming up again, plants that you've had twenty or thirty years. It's like seeing an old friend.”

Tasha Tudor
