

Our Church at Home

The Last Supper

WELCOME

Hello and welcome to Our Church at Home.

This is the story of the last supper.

Peace be with you

On the day of Passover Jesus shared his last meal with his friends and family in an upstairs room.

While they were at the table eating, Jesus took a piece of bread, said a prayer of thanks, broke the bread into pieces it and gave it them.

“This is my body“ he said, “given for you”

Then he took a cup of deep red wine.

“This is my blood” he said “poured out for you.

Whenever you eat and drink, remember me”

What Jesus did next shocked them all. He knelt down with a basin of water and a linen cloth and tenderly washed their feet.

Our Church at Home

The Last Supper

At first some of them said no. It seemed wrong that Jesus should do the work of a servant. But he insisted.

Jesus said "You need to stop worrying about who is the most important. Things are upside down in the Kingdom of God. Teachers wash the feet of their students!"

"Here is another thing. I am the Vine and you are the branches. We are part of each other. Connected. So stop looking for differences. Look for the ways you are one with me, and with each other.

Above all love each other. Love each other the way I have loved you"

The room was full of warmth and love and light.